

Pro-gard Products Introduces Universal SUV Push Bumper

40% taller and 20% wider

INDIANAPOLIS, IN, May 1, 2011 --- Pro-gard Products, LLC, a leading manufacturer and supplier of law enforcement vehicle equipment, has recently added a universal SUV Push Bumper to its product line.

"Pro-gard is very proactive in listening to customer requests when it comes to making our products better," said Mike Navarro, General Manager. "Our customers have been asking for a larger, transferable SUV push bumper and we felt that the time was right to develop this product. Given the current economy, departments are looking for the means to transfer equipment to new vehicles. We've had a great deal of positive feedback with our Universal Partition line. Adding this universal bumper was a logical solution for Pro-gard to provide fleets."

Navarro also added, "Our main goal is to make it as easy to do business with Pro-gard as possible. If that means improving a good product to make it better for our end users, that is what we strive to do."
